

Texas Education Code Sec. 39.0545 outlines the requirements for school districts to fulfill the Community and Student Engagement Ratings. In addition, Texas Education Code Sec. 39.0546 denotes the following:

(a) For purposes of including the local evaluation of districts and campuses under Section 39.053(c)(5) and assigning an overall rating under Section 39.054:

(1) each school district shall:

(A) select and report to the agency three categories under Section 39.0545(b)(1), as added by Chapter 211 (H.B. 5), Acts of the 83rd Legislature, Regular Session, 2013, under which the district will evaluate district performance;

(B) submit to the agency the criteria the district will use to evaluate district performance and assign the district a performance rating; and

(C) make the information described by Paragraphs (A) and (B) available on the district's Internet website; and

(2) each campus shall:

(A) select and report to the agency three categories under Section 39.0545(b)(1), as added by Chapter 211 (H.B. 5), Acts of the 83rd Legislature, Regular Session, 2013, under which the campus will evaluate campus performance;

(B) submit to the agency the criteria the campus will use to evaluate campus performance and assign the campus a performance rating; and

(C) make the information described by Paragraphs (A) and (B) available on the Internet website of the campus.

(b) Based on the evaluation under this section, each school district shall assign the district and each campus shall assign the campus a performance rating of A, B, C, D, or F, for both overall performance and for each program or category evaluated. An overall or a program or category performance rating of A reflects exemplary performance. An overall or a program or category performance rating of B reflects recognized performance. An overall or a program or category performance rating of C reflects acceptable performance. An overall or a program or category performance rating of D or F reflects unacceptable performance.

(c) On or before the date determined by the commissioner by rule, each school district and campus shall report each performance rating to the agency for the purpose of including the rating in evaluating school district and campus performance and assigning an overall rating under Section 39.054.
